The Survey of Pathways to Diagnosis and Services
A follow-up survey of Children with Special Health Care Needs (CSHCN) who ever had Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), Developmental Delay (DD), or Intellectual Disability (ID)*

Developmental Concerns
- Child’s age at first concerns
- Types of concerns
- Person who first reported concerns
- Age when parent first talked to Dr about concerns
- Dr’s response to concerns
- Ever had any developmental screening

Diagnostic Experience
- Type of provider who 1st diagnosed condition
- Age of diagnosis
- Ever told if child (w/ ASD) had Asperger’s/ PDD/ Autism Disorder
- Ever told child does not have the condition

Health & Education Services
- Types of health services, health care providers, & medications used.
- Type of school
- Child’s Individualized Education Program (IEP)
- Did child ever have Early Intervention Services (EIS)
- Ever told not EIS eligible?

Unmet Needs & Insurance Adequacy
- Any unmet treatment, services, and health care provider needs
- Any unmet needs due to their insurance
- Types of services not covered by insurance
- Adequate Insurance

Functioning Strengths and Difficulties
- Child’s strengths & difficulties
  - Child is well behaved
  - Child worries often
  - Child is often unhappy
  - Child gets along better with adults
  - Child has a good attention span

Parental Views & Safety Concerns
- Satisfaction with care & services
- Perceptions of the child’s condition & the condition’s etiology
- Child wandering
- Protective measures implemented due to child wandering

* The Data Query only contains estimates for CSHCN who currently have Autism Spectrum Disorder, Intellectual Disability, &/or Developmental Delay.